15 LOGO

Description

The emblem has the following features:

a) The shield in the centre:-

Lower half of the shield is blue in colour and in the centre is a circle and within the circle is a mother holding a child in white colour against a background of blue and red.

Upper half of the shield is white in colour with an opened book blue in colour. The book signifies its academic role engaged in postgraduate training and with close links with the universities.

b) On either side of the shield is a floral motif (the coat of arms) blue and silver in colour with a red Bunga Raya flower on either side (Malaysian National Flower).

c) Above the shield is a yellow moon crescent and above the crescent is an orange/red coloured sun. In the centre of the sun is a tiger head (Malaysian National Animal), a staff with five-pointed crown on top and a snake coiled around the staff (symbol of the medical profession).

The sun and the moon crescent show the link with the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists of London. It also signifies that its members work night and day in the pursuit of excellence in their profession.

d) Below the shield are the words "OBSTETRIK, GINEKOLOGI, MALAYSIA".
